MIDWEST TENNIS HALL OF FAME INDUCTION AND CHARITY GALA

The USTA/Midwest Section and Midwest Youth Tennis & Education Foundation cordially invite you to attend 'A Night to Remember.'

Friday, December 6, 2013

Chicago Renaissance in downtown Chicago

6:30 p.m. Cocktails and Silent Auction

7:30 p.m. Dinner

8:30 p.m. Evening Program and Live Auction

The USTA/Midwest Section will honor its distinguished Hall of Fame inductees Billie Jean King and Jon Vegosen. In addition, our Midwest Youth Tennis & Education Foundation will host a Charity Gala that evening. The USTA/Midwest Section will also present its Mel Bergman Award, Family of the Year Award, and NJTL Chapter of the Year Award. This evening will be a special night, and is being held as part of the 120th USTA/Midwest Section Annual Meeting. The evening will definitely be 'A Night to Remember.'

Live and Silent Auctions will include memorable packages:

- US Open, Western and Southern Open tickets/packages
- Other professional sports tickets
- Belize getaway package
- Navy Pier and other Chicago packages
- Autographed memorabilia
- ... and more

All proceeds from the Charity Gala benefit the MYTEF. Its mission is: 'to develop the life skills of youth through tennis and education.'
